

WUNA Monthly Meeting
Sunday, January 21, 2018
Catalina Neighborhood Park

1:00 p.m.

By general invitation, many WUNA members and other neighbors from WU gather for the Annual Meeting. After enjoying the potluck feast, the Annual Meeting is brought to order by outgoing president Chris Gans.

2:15 p.m.

Chris Gans addresses the members, thanks them for their participation over the years, and states that his eight-year term has been gratifying and that he will continue to be a presence in WUNA .

Jim Glock, WUNA Treasurer calls the roll of the Board and announces which areas are currently without a representative and invites members to volunteer for the open positions.

Chris Gans discusses the status of activities and projects including Trinity Presbyterian, the Euclid & Speedway five story student housing, and additional proposed student housing at 4th Avenue and 6th Street. All three projects are currently in a holding pattern due to financing or other considerations.

Jim Glock introduces each of the new Board candidates: Judy Sensibar, President; Lenor Glover, Vice President; Margaret Bly, Secretary, and Jim Glock, Treasurer. He also confirms those Area Representatives who will continue and confirms the newest Area Representatives who expressed an interest in the position.

President -- Judy Sensibar

Vice-President – Lenor Glover

Secretary – Margaret Bly

Treasurer – Jim Glock

Area 1 - Janet Labate Pitts

Area 2 - Michael Barker

Area 3 - Sally Rusk and Yvonne Arden

Area 4 - Dan Wilhelm

Everyone at the meeting was then invited by Jim and Chris to offer suggestions regarding what they would like to see happen in the neighborhood. The long list of suggestions will be considered at future Board Meetings. Volunteers to help develop some of the ideas are invited to participate fully in the Bi-Monthly meetings.

Lenore Glover advises the members that the next informal gathering will be March 25 at the Catalina Neighborhood Park and will include a plant and (and/or cookie!) exchange. The Board will provide light refreshments for the event.

The next Board Meeting is February 1, 2017 at 6:30 p.m. in the meeting room on the main floor of Trinity Presbyterian Church

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting is adjourned at 2:52 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Margaret Bly

Secretary.
